9. Supporting Information

It is important that you provide evidence in this section of how you meet the essential and desirable criteria set out in the person specification and why you are applying for this position. The information contained in this application will decide whether you are short listed for interview.

You may provide your supporting statement on separate sheets but you are requested to limit your statement to two pages of A4 paper.

10. References

Normally, references will be requested for all candidates invited for interview, unless you ask us not to approach your current employer by ticking the 'no' box below. This will not affect our decision to invite you for interview. Satisfactory references will be required before an offer of employment can be made and your permission will be sought at that stage.

Please give the names and addresses of two people who would be willing to supply a reference for you. Where possible both of these should be your two most recent employers, or if you have not worked before, please use your school or college teacher/tutor. If this is not possible a suitable alternative would be a previous employer, business associate or leader/organiser of a voluntary organisation.

To comply with safer recruitment best practice, at least one reference must be requested prior to interview. You should identify below which is the employer that you would be happy for us to contact prior to interview.

11. Disclosure of criminal convictions and rehabilitation of offenders act 1974

The appointment of any member of staff who may have contact with, or access to children or vulnerable adults will be subject to the receipt of a satisfactory disclosure from the Disclosure Barring Service. Please make the following declaration and tick the appropriate box.

Please note that the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken in to account. Guidance on the criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website, and it is advised that if you do have any spent convictions or cautions on your record, you seek confirmation from this website prior to disclosing any information that need not be disclosed.

I have nothing to declare

I have information to declare.

If you have any information to declare, then you should provide details of this in a sealed envelope accompanying your application. This will be treated in the strictest confidence and reference will be made to it for recruitment purposes only.

12. Arrangements for people with disabilities

You are not obliged to disclose any information about any disabilities you may have. However, if you do have a disability that may require adjustments to be made to the recruitment and selection process, please contact the named recruiter at the academy you are applying for.

14. Declaration

I understand that any offer of employment will be subject to the information on this application form being complete and correct. I authorise the Learning for Life Trust to make any appropriate checks which may be necessary in relation to the post I have applied for. False information, or a failure to supply the details required in this application form could make an offer of employment invalid or lead to termination of employment.

I agree that personal data relating to me which has been or is obtained by the Learning for Life Trust, including personal data given by me on this form, may be held and processed either on a computer or in manual records and may be disclosed to authorised employees of the Trust and used by the Trust for any purpose relating to my application and prospective recruitment and employment within the Trust.

Please note: We require a signature on this application form and if you submit the application with an electronic signature or a typed signature, you will be asked to sign the form when you attend for interview.
